Study Questions
For “The Great Taos Bank Robbery”

Why does Mrs. Fish hurry to get off the phone with the city editor?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Why did the robbers flee before attempting the robbery?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Why is it strange that the authorities had such a hard time finding the two men?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
| | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>T</td>
<td>F</td>
<td>The bank robbers waited in line when they entered the bank.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>T</td>
<td>F</td>
<td>The robbery attempt was stopped by the arrival of the police.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>T</td>
<td>F</td>
<td>During the manhunt, the two robbers entered the town in broad daylight, hoping to borrow money.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>T</td>
<td>F</td>
<td>The fugitives turned themselves in after having supper with a Taos resident.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>T</td>
<td>F</td>
<td>The grand jury indicted the two men on the charge of bank robbery.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>