

Amanda Emmanuelli

Amanda earned a Bachelor of Science degree, summa cum laude, in Montessori Education from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio and her Elementary 6-9 Credential from the American Montessori Society. Certified to teach K-8 in Ohio and licensed to teach K-6 in NC, she has had experience teaching lower grades at Charlotte Montessori School as well as Charlotte Preparatory School. While at CPS, she served as Team Leader for K-4 teachers and was honored as “Teacher of the Year”. She and her husband, Jaime, have two children, Evan and Alena;

their son Evan, who started in kindergarten at Crosland, will be entering his fifth year there as a 4th grader. Amanda looks forward to chairing the Education Committee on the Board of Directors and utilizing her education background, teaching experience and current-parent-at-the-school perspective to support Crosland’s fundamental mission.
