Athletic Philosophy

The John Crosland School Athletic Philosophy is one that encourages and allows for participation by all students regardless of their playing ability. Through school athletics we hope to improve physical health, self-esteem, social skills, as well as further instill in students a sense of pride and respect for their school.

ABSENCES:

In order to participate in extra-curricular activities (including practices and contests), students must be in attendance for all classes on that day, unless excused by the appropriate school official. If a student is not well enough to attend classes, he/she may not take part in afternoon or evening athletic practices or contests. When excused early from classes, students are responsible for class assignments, notes, etc. that are missed.

ACADEMIC ELGIBILITY:

Success on the playing field begins in the classroom. If a student needs to miss a practice for extra-help, he/she must communicate this to his/her coach prior to practice. After school study is not an excused extra help session. In addition, student athletes must maintain a minimum average of a C- in every class. If a student's grade falls below a C-, the student will be academically ineligible until the date that the grade is brought back up to the C-. This rule will take effect one month after the first day of each school year and/or the start of a new class.

AFTER SCHOOL STUDY AND BEHAVIOR DETENTIONS:

The Athletic Department encourages students' athletic participation to instill in them the skills needed to be successful in life. These skills include responsibility, communication, cooperation, and, most importantly, teamwork. Additionally, the Athletic Department fully supports the school's academic mission and encourages students to perform well in the classroom. In supporting the aforementioned goals, an after school study and behavior detention policy has been developed to support the athlete's overall success. The policy is as follows:

If a student athlete is assigned an after school study and/or behavior detention, he/she will not be allowed to participate in practice or an athletic event until the before mentioned after school study and/or behavior detention has been served unless the student has received permission to delay it to a later date by a school administrator.

AWARDS:

An Athletic Banquet will be held at the end of the year to recognize athletes for their participation in the Athletic program.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

All players and parents are to sign and then abide by the Athlete's Code of Conduct at the end of this document.

COMMITMENT POLICY:

Commitment and hard work are two of the valued aspects of playing on a team. It is vital that these are not compromised in the course of the season, as team play will be adversely affected. The Athletic Department strongly urges all student athletes and coaches to work together to find a solution, other than quitting or dismissal, when faced with a difficult situation. In order to have consistency, any student may leave any team by notifying the coach prior to the start of interscholastic competition, but once the playing season has begun, players and coaches must adhere to the following guidelines:

- 1. A meeting must take place between the coach and the student to discuss the situation. This should be a meeting that is taken very seriously, not just a chance encounter in the hallway.
- 2. Communication will then occur between the Athletic Director, the student, and the coach for further review.
- 3. The Athletic Director will communicate with the parents.

Communication:

Parents are encouraged to communicate with the Athletic Director regarding their son or daughter's participation in athletics. Parents may communicate directly with the coach. It is requested that any questions regarding coaching philosophy and/or expectations be expressed during a private conference. It is not appropriate for parents to discuss team strategy, playing time, and/or other student athletes. If a resolution is not reached between parent and coach, then the Athletic Director will become involved in a subsequent meeting.

Equipment/Uniforms:

Students are responsible for any school issued uniforms during the season and should be prepared to return them following the last scheduled contest. Students will be financially responsible for any damaged and/or lost uniforms/equipment.

Game or Practice Cancellation:

Scheduled games or practices may be canceled due to bad weather, poor field conditions, or other reasons not stated. Students will be notified of any changes and it will be their responsibility to communicate with parents.

Managers:

Students who avail themselves such opportunities will have the satisfaction of contributing to the welfare of the group and being actively involved as a member of the team. Conscientious managers are every bit as valuable as any other team member. Interested students should contact the head coach or the Athletic Director prior to the start of the season.

Transportation:

Students able to ride the bus or carpool. Students without transportation should communicate with their coach in order to make arrangements.
