

Sherry is founder, owner, and CEO of VisionCor, Inc., a 24 year-old professional services firm specializing in workforce performance improvement, change implementation, learning design and development for Fortune 100 clients. In addition, Sherry serves on the Board of Directors for the John Crosland School, a private school specializing in children with learning differences. She also serves on the Advisory Board for the Human Capital Media Group, publishers of Chief Learning Officer's magazine; the Governance Committee for Women Executives; and the Board of the International Women's Forum of North Carolina (IWFNC).

Sherry is a former President of Women Executives and Women Business Owners, and is the incoming President for the International Women's Forum of NC for 2015-2017. She is also a member of the National Association of Corporate Directors (NACD). She is a past recipient of the "Woman Business Owner of the Year Award" presented by the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO), Charlotte Chapter. She was named to the "Top 25 Women in Business" by the Charlotte Business Journal, and named as one of the "Top 50 Most Influential Women" by The Mecklenburg Times.

Under Sherry's direction, her firm is recognized as one of the "Top 50 Diversity-owned Businesses" in NC, and her firm is the recipient of the "2012 Excellence in Customer Service GOLD Award", and a 2013 "Certificate of Merit for Excellence in Vendor Partnerships." Sherry is interested in serving on additional corporate boards to further promote women as corporate board directors.
