

Laura Reed currently volunteers with several nonprofits in the Charlotte community.. Prior to her volunteer roles, Laura was the Director of Professional Development for the North Carolina Association of Independent Schools, NCAIS, for 6 years. Before working with the state association, Laura served as Head of School at Noble Academy in Greensboro for 8 years. Laura received her B.A. in Special Education from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and her Masters in School Administration from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She is certified by North Carolina in learning disabilities grades K-12 and as a principal. She is also a certified Wilson Language Instructor and a certified trainer by the Gurian Institute in how Boys and Girls Learn Differently.